

Award Information and Nomination Criteria for the Jan Holmes Island County Coastal Volunteer of the Year - 2019

Sponsors: Island County Marine Resources Committee, Sound Water Stewards of Island County, and Washington State University Extension Island County

Nomination Deadline: Friday, January 11, 2019 at 4:30pm

Nomination Submission: Nominations may be submitted by mail, hand delivery, email, or fax:

Mailing address: Anna Toledo, MRC Coordinator

Island County Public Health

PO Box 5000

Coupeville, WA 98239-5000 (must arrive by the deadline)

Hand delivery: Island County Public Health Department (Annex Building), Attn: Anna Toledo

1 NE 6th Street, Coupeville, WA 98239

Email: A.Toledo@co.island.wa.us Fax: 360.679.7390 Phone: 360.678.2349

Announcement of Awardee: Award announced and presented at the Welcome Address at Sound Waters University on Saturday, February 2, 2019 at South Whidbey High School

Additional Information:

Island County MRC website: <http://www.islandcountymrc.org/projects/volunteer-of-the-year/>

Sound Waters Stewards website: <http://soundwaterstewards.org/>

WSU Island County Extension website: <http://extension.wsu.edu/island/>

Nomination Criteria:

- Open to all volunteers, regardless of their membership to any one organization or institution
- Consistent volunteer involvement in project(s) that directly or indirectly support the collective knowledge and/or protection of the Island County marine ecosystem and coastal resources
- Demonstrates organizational responsibility, whether leading or following
- Demonstrates enthusiasm for and dedication to the marine environment
- Generous with their time without specific recognition expectations upon completion of the team's effort
- Supportive of staff and other volunteers

